

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY

Celebrating 125 Years of Potatoes, Ponies, and Pennies!

Since day one in 1893 through today, the foundation of Children's Home Society (CHS) has been built on the grassroots support of individuals, children and families, businesses, churches, schools, service clubs, and organizations.

In the early days of CHS, people answered the pleas of co-founder William Sherrard who called out CHS' needs in his 4-page monthly newspaper The Children's Friend.

"We have arranged with our grocer to store and deliver potatoes as needed. We can also use winter vegetables."

"We are greatly in need of a driving horse. Who will give us one?"

"We are anxious to hear that some of our farmer friends have left wheat at the mills or elevators, as flour is running low."

In September of 1896, Mr. Sherrard launched the idea of a "Rescue Army." He encouraged "...all the boys and girls who are glad they have a happy home..." to join this army.

The enlistment fee was $1 to be part of a 50-member company of children. Together, their $50 paid the costs for finding one child a good home.

Children all across the state sent in their dollars along with stories about how they raised it (see inset at left).

This is but one example of thousands of fundraising projects and events that have been held over CHS' history. These efforts, along with heart offerings of pennies, dollars, checks, and estate gifts have sustained the 125-year mission of CHS.

It is with deep gratitude for each and every donor and gift that this publication is dedicated.

ALCESTER, Oct. 10.

KIND FRIENDS:—Find enclosed one dollar as an enrollment fee in your Children's Rescue Army, First Regiment, Company A. I am a little boy, 7 years old. Mamma gave me 25 cents for my birthday gift, and told me if I would earn the remainder of the dollar I could send it to you. I picked up cobs for one penny a basket for the rest. I am, your little friend,

RALPH SWANSON.

NOVAK AND KIEFFER:

Yes, Virginia...there is a "Bike Santa!"

For the past 13 Christmases, Novak Sanitary Services of Sioux Falls has given a bike to every child at Sioux Falls Children's Home (SFCH) and Children's Inn who needs one.

In 2008, Novak challenged their friends in Rapid City at Kieffer Sanitation to do the same for the kids at Black Hills Children's Home. Long story short, they did—and have also been a "bike Santa" ever since!

There is another familiar player on the bike scene at SFCH. Every spring, members of the Downtown Kiwanis Club of Sioux Falls spend an evening inflating tires, tightening chains, adjusting pedals, and whatever else needs to be done to ready bikes for summer riding!

there is a Santa Claus." Many years ago an editor of a large newspaper so began a letter to a little girl whose faith had faltered. She had heard "the big kids" talking. The editor, in his letter to Virginia, tried to re-affirm her faith in the spirit of Christmas, which most certainly does exist.

Among those who keep that spirit strong is the smiling gentleman pictured on the cover of this issue of "The Children's Friend." His name is Kay Aanenson, a barber in Luverne, Minn. Every year, because of him, the children of the South Dakota Children's Home enjoy Christmas more. Each year, for more than 20 years at Christmastime he has made the trip to Sioux Falls with stockings filled with candy and goodies for the youngsters. Each stocking is marked with a child's name, and is placed on the tree at the Home to await Christmas morning.

As it is never too late to praise the acts of another, if you do it before they die, we want to tell you of a beautiful donation from Mr. Dickenson, confectioner and caterer, of this city, on Easter Sunday morning. It was in the form of candy eggs in nests made from candy, but in the finest of threads. They were really works of art. Mr. Dickenson has a large heart.

CHILDREN'S INN:

Baskets Help To Provide New Beginnings

A number of service clubs, church groups, and business employee groups have filled New Beginnings baskets for clients who have been served in shelter by Children's Inn. Many women who have left abusive situations and are starting a new life free from violence may find it expensive to set up a new household for themselves and their children.

New Beginnings baskets are laundry containers filled with basic household items such as cleaning supplies, towels, laundry detergent, dish soap, first aid supplies, paper products, and more. What a feeling to know how much people care!

Two babies in a basket on a bed!

A few mornings ago when at breakfast our matron, Miss Henry, reminded us that the flour bin was empty and asked what she should do. We told her to order from the grocer, but to only buy one sack, as relief would doubtless come from somewhere. A few minutes later when starting down town we met a drayman in the yard with 10 sacks which had been sent by the M. E. Sunday School of Howard, and an earnest prayer of thanksgiving went up as we thought of the goodness of the Lord in thus providing for our wants. We desire to extend our thanks to our dear young friends who came thus opportunely to our assistance. By the way, if your grocer offers to give you Howard Mills flour don't hesitate to take it, as there is nothing better.

We mourn the loss of a full blood Holsteincow. What fraternal society will send us the money to buy another?

Financial's charitable giving. Members earn Choice Dollars through their own Thrivent plans and direct these dollars to any of the thousands of enrolled nonprofits.

CHS is grateful to Loren Boyens of Thrivent Financial in Sioux Falls for connecting CHS to this program. In just a few years, $23,127 Choice Dollars have been directed by members to benefit CHS and Children's Inn!

ARGUS LEADER:

Lending a Hand Since 1896

The Sioux Falls Argus Leader chose Children's Inn in 2013 and in 2017 to benefit from their special holiday promotion "Lend-a-Hand." With stories devoted to educating the public about the work of Children's Inn, readers were encouraged to send a gift of support. Gifts totaled $58,791 in 2013 and $54,570 in 2017.

Three boys lend a hand with kitchen duties at CHS.

The following editorial will show what is thought of our work by those who come in almost daily contact with it, and is highly appreciated:

"In another column the Argus-Leader prints the report of the Children's Home in this city. This is an institution which should command the earnest support of everyone who possesses benevolent instincts, of everyone who has little children. The labor of love performed by those who have the institution in charge is one which appeals to all the better instincts of humanity. The great benefit received by the little waifs surrounded originally by vice and squalor, pinched with hunger and deprived of all opportunities for enlightenment and Christian teaching, are known to all who have watched the society and the remarkable work of Superintendent Sherrard. This is a charity which should command support among all of our people. Its treasury should be made to overflow."

KORY & THE FIREFLIES: A New Year's Eve Tradition at CHS

Children's Home Society.
 Rapid City Journal.

Last evening at about 7:30 o'clock an impromptu musicale was given on the Harney steps in the office, after which E. W. Caldwell, of Sioux City, called the attention of the audience to the needs of the Children's Home, and a response of $74.25 was received.

The program given was made up of a whistling solo by Miss Rose Bower, a piano solo by Miss Eleanor Keliher, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Geraldine Stannard. Miss Jewell, in behalf of the Home, expressed sincere thanks to all who contributed either money or music.

— THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND
 May 1904

For the past few years, many fans and friends of Kory & The Fireflies have gathered to ring in the New Year with great music, great food, and a great time!

Thanks to event coordinator Kory Van Sickle and the support of faithful sponsors, this special fundraiser for CHS has raised $55,350 over the past 5 years.

Two young girls perform their own "concert" at CHS.

This is something for home owners to dream about—especially homeowners whose houses may need painting.

Nearly 100 members of Sioux Falls Painters' Local No. 857 swarmed over the home of Elmer Garness, superintendent of the South Dakota Children's Home, 1227 East Tenth Street yesterday afternoon to completely paint the three-story, 28x30-foot house in 11 minutes and 40 seconds.

It was a feature of the Cosmopolitan Club's clean-up week program. Preliminary arrangements for the painters were made by local painting contractors and decorators. All materials and work was donated.

Thousands of children have been helped by the generosity of caring groups throughout the 125-year history of CHS.

THE ELKS: Celebrating 150 Years of Helping Children

CHS is not alone in celebrating a historic milestone! Elks USA—The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks—is celebrating its 150th Anniversary this year.

The South Dakota Elks Association has a long history of support for CHS. In just the past 27 years alone, their financial gifts to CHS total $356,682!

The public schools all give a generous offering of provisions, fruits and toys, besides furnishing turkeys, pies, cakes and other good things for our Christmas dinner. The Elks sent carryall and brought the children to the Auditorium where they received enough candles to keep them supplied for a week. Jewett Bros. & Jewett, 1 box of oranges and 1 of apples; Haley & Co., 1 box of oranges; J.W. Gentle, 1 box of oranges; Mrs. Kuehn, 32 sacks of candy, pop corn, nuts; John and Gratton Flitz Gibbon, toys.

Fun in the Sun!

CHS friends Rob and Debbie Mudge of Rapid City share their love of boating and water sports with kids from both Black Hills Children's Home (BHCH) and Sioux Falls Children's Home (SFCH). BHCH kids ride the waves at Sheridan Lake.

Jim Bruns and a host of volunteers welcome SFCH kids to enjoy the waters of Catfish Bay, and also provide complimentary tickets to attend the evening's "Greatest Show on H2O!"

"Summer's for Sunning . . ."

Summer vacation finds the children from the Home engaged in a multitude of hot-weather activities . . . swimming, picnicing, sunning, camping, fishing, baseball or just plain relaxing in the shade.

On the cover, in the upper left-hand corner, are youngsters congregated at Drake Springs Pool. Because of the short distance, these boys and girls can easily walk to the pool, and like a line of mountaineers, can be seen winding up and down the path from the Home to the wonderfully cool water. The boys are wearing brand new swimming trunks . . . a most welcome gift from the Altrusa Club. Not too surprising is the fact that the boys and girls either outgrow their suits or outwear them during the season.
