CHILDREN'S INN NAMING OPPORTUNITIES

Children's Inn
A program of
CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY

1 Angel Garden | $3,000,000

Approaching the shelter is a beautiful natural setting with wildflowers to attract butterflies along with a sculpture of an angel. This space offers a welcoming and calm environment, enhanced by the curved stone wall in close proximity. All those who enter know they are protected by the angels within.

2 Welcoming Lobby

The Welcoming Lobby provides a warm and a positive first impression to all who arrive at Children's Inn. People entering will be greeted by caring, friendly staff who will offer assistance to meet their needs.

3 Outdoor Courtyard

Outside the shelter in the back yard will be a large, secure courtyard with green space and gardens for clients to relax in a natural setting. It also includes significant space for children, including a playground, sandbox, basketball court and room to ride bikes.

4 Great Conference Room

As a community partner, Children's Inn will host many meetings, trainings, gatherings and celebrations in this spacious room.

5 Children's Playground

Within the outdoor courtyard is a large, secure playground for children which includes a swing set, playset, sandbox, basketball court and room to ride bikes.

6 Children's Village

When their own homes are no longer safe, children will find comfort and security in one of the 10 beds in this wing. Six bedrooms, gathering space, reading areas, bathrooms, and laundry make this wing a safe haven for children who are placed in our care.

7 Client Village #1

A place to call home, the 10 bedrooms with 27 beds, along with laundry, a lounge area, and bathrooms, provide victims of abuse and their children a sense of peace and hope they once believed didn't exist before coming to Children's Inn.

8 Client Village #2

No one grows up dreaming of living in a domestic violence shelter, but this welcoming village of 10 bedrooms, 28 beds, bathrooms, laundry, and a lounge area gives individuals everything they need to feel safe and begin a life free from violence.

9 Client Village #3

Victims of abuse deserve a place of dignity and healing. With 12 bedrooms and 31 beds, a lounge area, bathrooms, and laundry, this village will help those staying at Children's Inn regain a sense of peace.

10 Crisis Support Center

Taking the first step to reach out for help can be overwhelming. Individuals in need of services, or community partners on site to collaborate with clients or children, will be greeted and shown to one of the six meeting rooms. Our advocates will then help determine their needs and provide resources and support.

11 Dining Room

Food is a source of comfort for many and a way to connect with others. Prior to staying at Children’s Inn, many families often didn’t know when they would get their next meal or if it would be disrupted by violence. In the Children’s Inn dining room, clients are provided with nurturing, healthy meals in a family-like environment.

12 Children’s Multipurpose Room

Children love to express themselves through art, reading, puzzles and games. In our children’s multipurpose room, the space is functional, engaging, and developmentally appropriate to allow for a positive, healing and fun experience for all children who stay with us.

13 Rotunda

A bright, welcoming, focal point in shelter, the Rotunda greets clients as they enter the hub of the building.

14 Client Family Room (x2)

Like a family room you might find in your own home, here clients can gather with their families or enjoy fellowship with others staying at Children’s Inn.

15 Children’s Family Room

Children in our care will enjoy movies, popcorn, games and laughter in this comfortable room away from the hustle and bustle of shelter living.

16 Play Room

Children express themselves through play, which can be even more important for children who have experienced trauma. This room will be filled with imaginative play items, gross motor toys and lots of opportunity for children to do their job—play!

17 Teen Room

Being a teen, they deserve their own space where they will have this quiet, comfortable area to play games and do homework.

SELECTED

$100,000

18 Support Group Room

As a dedicated room for support groups, this space provides a safe, calming and therapeutic setting for participants to process their trauma and begin the journey of healing.

19 Outreach Wing

A lot of important work is done outside of the shelter. Our outreach staff includes therapists, our parenting coordinator and our outreach advocate. Their offices, where they meet with individuals to provide education, advocacy and therapy, can be found in this wing.

20 Client Clothing Store

Clients often come into shelter with nothing but the clothes on their backs. The client clothing “store” provides everything from pajamas to coats and shoes, ensuring clients have comfort and dignity.

21 Client Meeting Rooms (x6)

When an individual in crisis needs the support of an advocate to fill out a protection order, discuss a safety plan, coordinate with community resources, or just have a shoulder to cry on, these safe, confidential meeting rooms provide the space to accommodate this.

$50,000

22 Donation Reception

Children’s Inn depends on the generosity of the community to donate the many items we need for operations and give our clients what they need while staying in shelter. Thousands of donors will visit this area each year when they drop off the valuable items we in turn use to make a shelter a home.

23 Kitchen

Food has to be prepared in our kitchen. In our own home, our cooks prepare a meal that is safe and nutritious. It is essential to ensure meals are prepared and served without interruption.

SELECTED

$25,000

24 Conference Observation Room

Although their own homes may not have been safe, children who have been removed from their homes and placed at Children’s Inn still want and deserve to have relationships with their families. In our conference observation room, families have the chance to visit, while staff can supervise and ensure safety of the child.

25 Client Hub Resource Center

The client hub resource center is the heart of the shelter. It’s where individuals can find a staff person to assist with any need, no matter the time of day or night. Knowing someone is always here to help provides clients with a sense of security during a time of uncertainty.

26 Therapy Client Waiting Area

Clients can gather their thoughts while waiting to meet with their therapists in this quiet, confidential space.

27 Play Therapy Room

For children who have experienced trauma, therapy through play is a healing way to relieve stress and manage emotions in a safe space. This room will have all the tools our therapists need to help children on their journey.

28 Pantry

With an a clients in shelter each day, we need a kitchen area to prepare these meals. SELECTED pantry near the kitchen.

29 Shelter Staff Recharge Room

The day-to-day work can be stressful and exhausting. SELECTED themselves to replenish. is available for a quiet retreat.

30 Bed Bug Sanitation Room

Having a clean shelter lets clients know they matter and deserve a space that is well cared for. To aid in keeping shelter bed bug-free, all client belongings will be first brought to this room where staff perform a bed bug management procedure.

31 Laundry Room

With the potential of 96 guests staying with us, the need to launder bedding and towels will be ongoing. Commercial style laundry machines give us the ability to provide guests with clean, fresh linens.

$10,000

32 File/Mail Room

Confidential documents, such as protection orders, housing applications, and other important papers will be easily accessed by staff in this filing room.

33 Bedrooms (x38)

The bedrooms at Children’s Inn will provide those staying with us a safe, comfortable haven where they can finally get a peaceful night’s rest—which may have often been impossible in a home where abuse was present.

34 Family Lounge (x6)

Connecting with others who may be experiencing something similar to their own circumstances can provide clients with a sense of belonging. Each village has two lounge areas that will allow families to gather and visit with others staying in that village.

35 Shelter Staff Offices (x12)

It takes a village to do this work. The offices throughout the shelter side of the building will house our case managers, crisis advocates, child care providers and supervisors.

36 Outreach Advocate

Victims of abuse in our community who are not in need of our shelter or have left shelter but have continued advocacy and case management needs, are supported by our outreach advocate. This office will be a safe place to find ongoing support from Children’s Inn.

37 Parenting Office

Parenting is the toughest job you’ll ever have. The parenting coordinator provides individual parenting classes for those in need of support and education as they work to be the best parents they can be.

38 Therapy Offices (x4)

Healing from trauma and abuse takes time and support. Our therapists offer guidance and compassion through individual, family and child therapy.

39 Workroom

Essential to the operations of a 24/7 facility, the workroom houses a printer, copier, fax machine, staff mailboxes and office supplies.
